Morning Oregonian.

VOL. XXI.—NO. 6191. PORTLAND, OREGON: FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 1881. PRICE—TEN CENTS.

GENERAL NEWS.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

W. D. Howells to be U. S. Minister to Switzerland.

NEW YORK, Feb 17.—T[illegible] W. D. Howells retires from the Atlantic Monthly [illegible] the appointment as U S minister to Switzerland is under consideration.

Costly Seats.

NEW YORK, Feb 17.—The Evening Post learns that early this week a membership in the New York stock exchange sold for $31,000 and the buyer has to pay [illegible] $1000 to the stock exchange. There are eleven hundred memberships and at $31,000 each the present value of total memberships is $34,100,000. Five years ago it was difficult to sell a membership for $5000.

Official Help Tendered.

Superintendent Walling to-day wrote to the secretary of the society for prevention of crime that he would take a time so far as warranted by law to break up gambling houses, provided the society would furnish the necessary money.

Money, Stocks and Bonds.

NEW YORK, Feb 17.—Silver bars 113½; money easier at 4@6; governments strong; stocks closed generally strong. Western Union 117½; Wells Fargo, 118; New York Central, 146¾; Erie, 50½; Panama, offered 228; Union Pacific, 123¼; bonds, 115 bid; Central Pacific, 90½; bonds, 115½; Sutro 1½.

Elected Directors.

NEW YORK, Feb 17.—Jay Gould and Sidney Dillon have been elected directors of the New Jersey Central vice Knight and Clark, resigned.

Another Gould Enterprise.

NEW YORK, Feb 17.—The Times says: The New Jersey Central change noticed to-day is for the purpose of providing an eastern outlet for Gould's Wabash Pacific system. This connection will give Gould control of the coal business and furnish him a transatlantic system of roads having two termini in this city independent of the New York Central and Erie. The total debt and stock of the New Jersey Central is $58,000,000. The cost of the road was only $20,000,000.

Wrestling Match.

Edwin Bibby easily won a wrestling match with James Daly, Irish champion, to-night.

Suit for a Mine.

NEW YORK, Feb 17.—Nathan O Jonathan, A Baldwin and others obtained a verdict in a suit against Geo Cornwall to recover half of one-tenth interest in the Forest Queen mine, Gunnison county, Colo.

Woman's War on Polygamy.

NEW YORK, Feb 17.—The ladies' anti-polygamy society of Brooklyn held a meeting this afternoon. Mrs Imogene Fales presided, and many prominent ladies of Brooklyn were present. The message of the governor of Idaho on the subject of polygamy was read by the secretary, Mrs Bradshaw, and favorably commented on. The society will place itself in communication with the principal cities with a view to forming auxiliary societies. A committee was appointed to confer with Congressmen elect Bliss and Smith and interest them in the work which the society propose to do. Printed petitions against polygamy will be sent to temperance and woman's prayer meetings for signatures. The clergymen of Brooklyn will be requested to read notices relative to the next meeting of the society from the pulpits. A letter from Rev Dr Ingersoll of Brooklyn was read, in which he stated that he will give the movement his hearty co-operation. Letters were also read from New York ladies expressing sympathy with the work.

The Reason of their Success.

NEW YORK, Feb 17.—The Tribune has interviewed a gentleman from Transvaal who says that the reason of the success of the Boers is that they are the best marksmen in the world from long practice. Their campaigns have been conducted with great wisdom and skill.

Suicide.

The Sun says Ann Harkins, an old servant of the Astor family, suicided yesterday by leaping from the 3d story of St Joseph's Home for the Aged.

Fatal Row.

Thomas Sullivan, a barkeeper, refusing to leave a car at the Third avenue depot and resisting ejectment, a fight ensued in which he fatally shot Conductor Jos Bannister and had his own skull crushed by a heavy stone thrown by a depot employe.

Snow Storm at Chicago.

CHICAGO, (midnight) Feb 18.—Since eight o'clock this evening, nearly five inches of snow has fallen and it is still coming at the rate of an inch or two an hour. It is compact and lies where it falls and will prove a great hindrance to railroad and foot travel, coming, as it does, upon other heavy snows which have covered the ground almost without interruption since the middle of last November. This heavy fall is quite remarkable. The air is cool and crisp with no signs of a thaw.

Failure.

MILWAUKEE, Feb 17.—Fred Gunther, an old citizen in the wholesale hat and fur trade, has failed; liabilities $[illegible]0,000, assets $[illegible]0,000.

Blockade Ended.

DENVER, Feb 17.—The snow blockade of the Kansas Pacific and Santa Fe roads has ended and delayed trains are all through.

En Route to Los Pinos.

Chief Douglass passed through Pueblo on Sunday night strongly guarded en route to the Los Pinos agency.

Indicted for Arson.

OMAHA, Feb 17.—J L Herrick and Charles B DeGroat and Ben DeGroat, brothers, have been indicted for burning the latter's hat store in December last. Herrick, who was an intimate friend of the DeGroats, was arrested a few weeks ago and held to await the action of the grand jury, which has resulted as above. DeGroat Bros left for New York soon after the fire, leaving numerous creditors here. They did not get the benefit of the insurance money amounting to $4000 as it was attached by eastern creditors.

Prohibition Fails in Michigan.

DETROIT, Feb 17.—A prohibitional amendment to the constitution lacked one vote in the senate of two-thirds majority; reconsidered for amendment.

Denver to be Lighted by Electricity.

DENVER, Feb 17.—The city council to-night accepted a proposition by C. C. Bathrauff and others for lighting the entire city by the Brush electric light for two years at $14,000 per annum. The light to be furnished is guaranteed to be four times greater in the aggregate than could be furnished by the same number of gas lamps. The city is to be given thirty days trial of the light before its formal acceptance.

Railroad Accident.

HANNIBAL, Mo., Feb 17.—A caboose and freight train on the Wabash jumped the track and took fire. V. Snell, a passenger, was killed, and two others hurt slightly.

Still no Choice.

HARRISBURG, Feb 17.—No choice for senator. The regular republican caucus accepted to-night a proposition for a joint committee of 12 to select a candidate for senator, subject to the approval of each body.

Prohibition Defeated in West Virginia.

WHEELING, Feb 17.—A proposed constitutional amendment prohibiting the sale of intoxicants was defeated in the senate to-day.

Murder at Little Rock.

LITTLE ROCK, Feb 17.—In Benton county, C D Gunter, brother of the congressman, shot and killed L B Gamble. The quarrel arose over the postoffice.

CHINESE NATURALIZATION.

Three Applications Before a Chicago Court.

CHICAGO, Feb 17.—Three celestials, desirous of becoming bona fide American citizens, yesterday applied to John Stephens, clerk of the criminal court, for naturalization papers. Wong Ching Foo, a naturalized Chinaman, acted as interpreter and explained the case fully. Moy Hong Fee, one of the trio, had only been in the country a few months and made application for and was given his first papers. He placed upon the docket a pen and ink sky rocket as his signature, and said that a man well versed in the Chinese language would call it Moy Hong Kee. Moy Yee and Moy Sam, the other two, have been in the country ten years, having come when but 16 years old, and if ever entitled to full naturalization papers they should now, but Judge Moran after examination of the applicants took the matter under advisement. A judge of the circuit court of San Francisco and a judge in New York have decided that Chinamen cannot become full citizens of the United States. The question has never come before the supreme court and it is one of unsettled questions in the great Chinese question. Judge Moran did not care to express an opinion upon what other judges had disagreed upon without careful consideration of the whole subject. He was not sure, moreover, but that the provisions of the new Chinese treaty would prevent the consummation of Mongolian citizenship.

A NEW SCHEME.

How it is Proposed to Unite the Northern Pacific and O. R. & N. Co.—"Follow the Leader."

NEW YORK, Feb 17.—The Post says: It is reported that the chief organizer of the Oregon Navigation system recently gave notice to his following, who under his lead have in the last two years made fortunes, that he wanted a fund of $8,000,000 to be used for a purpose which he would disclose later; that in response to this notice he received offers of $16,000,000 but allotted only $8,000,000. Moreover, that his receipts or certificates of acceptance of subscriptions have since sold at 40 per cent premium. We say that this is reported. It was told us by a reputable banker, and parts of the tale read like a chapter from a leaf of John Law. We now hear, but not on the same authority, that the purpose for which this money was wanted is to be used in securing control of the Northern Pacific railroad, the scheme being to practically bring about a union of the interests of that company and the Oregon Navigation. We have been unable to confirm this, but if it is true it affords an explanation for the large rise in Northern Pacific common stock and the advance to-day in preferred shares.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Senate Organization.

WASHINGTON, Feb 17.—It is rumored that Senator Conover has seriously [illegible] absent at [illegible] executive session. His absence would give the organization to the republicans. It is certain that Senator Davis of Illinois will vote to maintain the present organization of the senate, as he holds that it would be independence to maintain status quo while organization for the benefit of party would be rank partisanship.

Amendments to the Legislative Bill.

WASHINGTON, Feb 17.—The senate committee on appropriation has decided to report important amendments to the legislative appropriation bill for the purpose of simplifying and clearing up as soon as possible a vast accumulation of unsettled pension cases.

The Apportionment Bill.

Republican representatives will caucus this evening on the apportionment bill to determine upon a course of action. Many favor its immediate passage as two-thirds of the state legislatures are now in session and it would save the states large expense. It now seems probable that the bill will pass.

The Inauguration.

Gen Sherman, grand marshal of the inaugural, has issued a circular detailing the programme to be observed by the military escort of the president elect. Gen Hancock will be here at the inauguration.

Silver for the Mint.

The treasury department to-day purchased 12,000 ounces of fine silver for delivery to the San Francisco mint.

Nomination Withdrawn.

The president to-day withdrew the nomination of Forster, U S district attorney at New York city. It is stated that E T Shepard, a Conkling man, will be nominated. This it is said will weaken opposition to Stanley Matthews and improve his chances of confirmation, and it is said the administration will discontinue its attacks on Conkling.

Commissioners Provided For.

As the result of Secretary Evarts' interview with the appropriation committee the following paragraph was inserted in the sundry civil bill: "For commissioners, not exceeding three in number, to represent the United States at the conference to be called to adopt common rates between gold and silver for the purpose of establishing internationally the use of bi-metallic money and securing fixity of relative value between those metals, $5000 each and reasonable expenses to be approved by the secretary of state, and for a secretary to each commissioner, $3000, the amount necessary to pay such compensation and expenses to be immediately available out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the proportion to be paid by the United States of joint expenses $7500; the report of said commissioners to be made to congress for ratification or rejection."

The McGarrahan Bill Again.

The house committee on private land claims has reported to the house and recommended the passage of a bill to confirm to Wm McGarrahan all that tract of land in the state of California known as the Rancho Panoche Grande, save such portions as have been patented or settled upon with the intention, in good faith, of obtaining a title under the laws of the United States. The bill further provides for the appointment by the president of a commissioner who shall report to the secretary of the interior the value of such portions of said tract as have been already patented and occupied, and the secretary shall issue scrip to McGarrahan for other lands of the United States (not mineral) equal in value at government valuation. The bill and report was committed to the committee [illegible].

The Chinese Treaties.

Senator Eaton, chairman of the foreign relations committee, to-day emphatically denied the published statement that he had concluded not to call up the Chinese treaties for action by the senate this session. He says on the contrary, that he is confident that they will be ratified within the next ten days. Commissioner John F Swift arrived here this afternoon. The main object of his visit is to promote the ratification of the treaties and with that object in view he spent some time on the floor of the senate during to-night's session conversing with various senators.

Personal.

Gen. Miller visited the capitol to-day. He was warmly greeted by many old friends [illegible] and afterward was extensively [illegible] of his [illegible] California [illegible] [illegible] with him [illegible] showed [illegible] selected [illegible] the 4th of March [illegible] the republican [illegible] Senator Booth [illegible].

Jesse D Carr and John Allman have arrived in Washington on business connected with their mail contracts.

THE SUNDRY CIVIL BILL.

A Complete List of its Features.

The sundry civil bill as sent to the printer by the committee provides for participation of the United States in the international monetary conference and $[illegible] for the National Soldiers Home; $[illegible] for the coast and geodetic survey; $10,000 for completing the census; $[illegible] for U S courts, salaries, fees, prisoners, etc., and $1,700,000 for public printing; for light house on Standard Island, Lake Michigan, $4000; salaries and expenses incident to light house establishments, $1,893,000, to be expended under the direction of the commission [illegible] and fisheries $121,000; construction of a steamer for the prosecution of the work and investigation of the commissioner of fisheries $103,000; Rock Island arsenal $[illegible]1,000; care and repairs of the executive mansion and lighting the same $42,000; continuing the construction of the new buildings for the war, navy and state departments $470,000; signal service, $[illegible]5,000; national cemeteries $100,000; military telegraph lines, $75,000; purchase of private papers of confederate Generals Bragg and Polk, relating to the late war $20,000; expenses of the Mississippi river commission and the continuation of surveys of that river $150,000; naval stations $350,000; carrying out various acts creating a national board of health $75,000, provided $50,000 of the appropriation made by the act of June 2, 1879 shall be applied to the same purpose, and no money shall be expended for the above purpose out of any appropriation heretofore made, or by virtue of any previous laws for aid to local quarantine stations; for aid of local and state boards of health $100,000, provided $50,000 of the appropriation made by the act of June 2, 1879 shall be applied to the same purpose and no money shall be expended for the above service for the fiscal year of 1881, other than that specifically appropriated by the act approved June 16, 1880. Total amount appropriated $19,091,205.

IRISH AFFAIRS.

Gladstone Proposes to Push Matters.

LONDON, Feb 17.—In the commons Gladstone gave notice that unless the committee on the protection bill closed to-night he will move to-morrow that the chairman shall report the bill before midnight. This motion will be in accordance with the speaker's new rules which provide that such motion will be put without debate and if carried by a majority of three to one the chairman of the committee will leave the chair at midnight, thus compulsorily closing the committee's stage of the bill.

The Better Part of Valor.

The Times says that in one of the districts in the west of Ireland notorious as the scene of more than one scandalous land league victory, between 20 and 30 village tyrants have quietly absconded since the second reading of the protection for person and property in Ireland bill.

Urgent Business in the House of Commons.

The speaker of the commons has announced fresh and most stringent rules respecting urgent business.

Gladstone's Policy—Parnell and his Party.

Gladstone's Irish policy is becoming intensely unpopular in Ireland and it is predicted that the present government will not survive the pacification of Ireland. Parnell's aversion to overt acts is causing him to lose ground with the extremists of his own party.

Parliamentary.

LONDON, Feb 17.—In the commons this evening, Cowan, radical and home rule member for Newcastle on Tyne, amidst cheers from the Irish members, announced that as soon as the rules of the house permitted, he would move whenever urgency is declared that the bill should pass without discussion. A M Sullivan, home rule member for Meath, gave notice that if Cowan's motion is negatived he would move when urgency is declared that the premier should move that no Irishman be heard on any question.

Parnell Denounced.

Shaw, member of parliament for Cork Co., who seceded from the Parnell party, has issued a manifesto in which he charges Parnell with having, by the universal use of the weapon of obstruction, led the party to helpless defeat, Irish representation being discredited and English feeling outraged. Shaw denounces the coercion bill and abjures Irishmen to prepare for freedom by constitutional action.

The Parnellites Join the Conservatives.

LONDON, Feb 17.—In consequence of the action of the government on the subject of coercion the Parnellites have resolved to vote with the conservatives on all questions not relating to Ireland. Parnell announces he will be in parliament to-morrow.

English Letters in Transit.

LONDON, Feb 17.—In the commons the postmaster general simply replied no to a question as to whether warrants authorizing him to open letters in transit would be presented to the house. The answer was greeted with prolonged cheers.

In London Again.

LONDON, Feb 17.—Parnell, O'Kelly, Brennan and Sexton arrived to-night.

Will Desert Ireland.

LONDON, Feb 17.—Whalley, one of the traversers, has started from Claremorris for London to proceed to the Cape where he will spend the remainder of his life.

H. L. Cross, county treasurer, took the state taxes of Clackamas county, amounting to $[illegible] 41, to Salem last Tuesday.

CONGRESSIONAL.

Senate.

WASHINGTON, Feb 17.

M[illegible] gave notice that the [illegible] Monday.

[illegible] resolution was [illegible] protecting innocent purchasers [illegible] of vendors of patents and patent rights.

The senate resumed the funding bill.

Platt favored the 3 per cent [illegible].

At this point debate was [illegible] and [illegible].

Wallace from the conference on the Indian appropriation bill reported an agreement [illegible] except that relating to retaining the Indian [illegible], and in reply to Allison explained that the effect of the adoption of the report would not be to pass the bill, but to settle the difference between the houses on all [illegible] the single [illegible] in regard to which a new conference [illegible].

The funding bill was again taken up.

Cockrell recalled the fact that Secretary Sherman had objected to the silver bill as it would cripple his efforts to float the 4 per cent, yet the latter were now $1.13. After the bill passed he said last year that a 3½ or 3.65 bond could not float if it ran less than 10 years. Now he thought it could. He believed that a 3 per cent bond would float easily and soon be at a premium. At 4:45 a vote being called for, Ferry moved an amendment of the committee fixing 3½ per cent as the rate for the long bond by inserting the words "not exceeding," thus applying the sliding scale provided for treasury notes to the long loan.

Bayard intimated his willingness to accept the amendment on condition that it would strengthen the 3½ rate.

At this point (5:30) an ineffectual effort was made to adjourn.

Davis of Illinois insisted that it was a duty the senate owed the country to pass a funding bill of some kind before adjourning. He thought that the subject had been talked to death, and that as every member had made up his mind on it they should come to a vote.

Ferry advocated his amendment and Allison opposed. It was rejected; ayes 12, noes 45.

A vote was then taken on the amendment of the committee fixing the interest rate at 3½ instead of 3 per cent as fixed by the house; rejected, ayes 22, noes 33. The vote was as follows:

Ayes—Allison, Anthony, Baldwin, Bayard, Blair, Burnside, Cameron of Wisconsin, Davis of Illinois, Ferry, Groom, Hampton, Hill of Colorado, Hoar, Kernan, Kirkwood, Logan, McMillan, Morrill, Paddock, Platt, Rollins and Windom—22.

Noes—Beck, Booth, Brown, Call, Cockrell, Davis of West Virginia, Eaton, Farley, Garland, Grover, Harris, Hereford, Hill of Georgia, Ingalls, Johnston, Jones, Kellogg, Lamar, McDonald, McPherson, Maxey, Morgan, Pendleton, Pugh, Saulsbury, Saunders, Slater, Teller, Vance, Vest, Voorhees, Walker, and Williams—33.

Butler, Dawes, Edmunds, White, Randolph and Thurman in the affirmative, paired with Jones of Nevada, Ransom, Plumb, Withers and [illegible] in the negative. Bruce and Jones of Florida also paired.

The next amendment of the committee making the bonds payable semi-annually was agreed to without objection.

The next amendment was to create a [illegible] 20 instead of a 10 loan.

McPherson moved to amend so as to make it a [illegible] loan; lost, yeas 14, noes 43.

[illegible] pending amendment then prevailed without objection.

Amendments substituting "Treasury notes" for "certificates" as applied to a short loan and inserting the words "not exceeding," before the amount $400,000,000, and providing for their issue in denominations of $10 or some multiple of that sum not exceeding $100, was agreed to without a formal vote.

The next amendment was to fix the interest rate of the 5-10 loan at not exceeding [illegible] per cent, the rate passed by the house; lost—ayes [illegible], noes 31. The vote was identical with that upon the interest rate upon the long loan [illegible] negative.

[illegible]

[illegible] Burnside, Butler [illegible] Davis (Ills) [illegible] Ferry, Hampton [illegible] Kernan, Kirkwood [illegible] McMillan [illegible] Platt [illegible] Saunders, Teller, Voorhees, Windom—[illegible].

Noes—Cockrell, Coke, Farley, Garland, Groome, Harris, Hereford, Hill (Ga), Ingalls, Jones, [illegible] McPherson, Maxey, Morgan, Pendleton, Pugh, Randolph, Slater, Vest, Williams—[illegible].

An amendment was adopted allowing the secretary of the treasury to purchase and [illegible] bonds upon the treasury [illegible] but not so [illegible] as to materially impair the resumption fund; [illegible] noes 19.

The river and harbor bill was taken up [illegible] was temporarily laid aside on objection of Morrill to its present consideration.

The funding debate was resumed. Provisions of the house bill were substantially retained so far as related to provisions regarding the deposit of bonds as security by national banks; ayes [illegible], noes 19, as follows:

Noes—Allison, Anthony, Bayard, Blair, Burnside, Cameron, Eaton, Ferry, Groome, Hampton, Kernan, McMillan, McPherson, Morrill, Paddock, Platt, Teller, Wallace, Windom—19.

Ayes—Beck, Butler, Cockrell, Coke, Davis (Ills), Farley, Garland, Harris, Hereford, Ingalls, Jones, Lamar, McDonald, Maxey, Morgan, Pendleton, Pugh, Slater, Vest, Voorhees, Williams—21.

Bailey, Booth, Plumb and Walker were opposed to the committee striking out the house provision and the committee paired with Davis of [illegible] and Hill of Colorado respectively. Baldwin and Saulsbury were absent and also paired. The next amendments of the committee being two new sections relating to the payment of the loan in amounts to be determined by the secretary of the treasury, etc., making bonds receivable for circulation and providing that only interest bearing securities of the United States shall be receivable as collateral for government deposits were agreed to without debate. This disposed of the committee amendments.

Kirkwood submitted amendments as follows: It shall be the duty of the secretary of the treasury, under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, to authorize public subscriptions at not less than par to be received at all depositories of the United States and at all national banks for bonds and for treasury notes herein provided for for 30 days before he shall contract for or award any portion of said bonds or treasury notes to any syndicate of individuals or bankers or otherwise than under such public subscription, and if it shall happen that more than the entire amount of said bonds and treasury notes or of either of them has been subscribed within 30 days he shall award the full amount subscribed to all persons who shall have made bona fide subscriptions for the sum of (blank) thousand dollars or less at rates most advantageous to the United States and the residue ratably among subscribers in proportion to the amount by them respectively subscribed at rates most advantageous to the United States; agreed to without debate; also an amendment fixing the time at which new bonds shall be receivable as security for circulation on the 1st of July instead of May 1st.

McDonald stated that the interest rate on treasury notes, as that provision had been amended, had been fixed at 3 per cent. The sliding scale provided by the words "not exceeding" having been stricken out he moved to restore these words, so as to give the secretary of the treasury discretion to sell the short loan at less than 3 per cent; agreed to—ayes 27, noes 17.

At 11:20 Bayard asked that the bill be reported from the committee and be taken up immediately after the morning hour, vote to be had at 2 o'clock; agreed to. Senate adjourned.

House.

A report submitted, declaring that [illegible], sitting member from the 2d North Carolina district, was entitled to the seat, was laid over, the river and harbor bill being the regular order.

Robinson moved to commit it to the judiciary committee with instructions to report back with an amendment confirming appropriations to rivers, harbors and streams within the maritime and admiralty jurisdiction of the United States; defeated—152 to 65.

The bill was then passed—162 to 8.

Cox gave notice that he would call the previous question Saturday at 12 o'clock.

Gunter reported a bill for the relief of William McGarrahan; calendar.

Conference report on the consular appropriation bill was agreed to.

On motion of Cox the house proceeded to consider the appropriation bill by a vote of 144 to 93.

Finley and Rothwell favored the bill on a majority of the committee on census and after a short discussion the matter went over for the present.

Hubbell reported back the pension appropriation bill with the senate amendments, recommending concurrence in some and non-concurrence in others; report agreed to.

The speaker laid before the house a message from the president transmitting a report from the secretary of state in relation to a resolution addressed to him by the house on the 31st January on the subject of international action for restoration of silver to full use as money. The message was referred.

The house then [illegible] adjourned.

SUPREME COURT.

SALEM, Feb 17, 1881.

Supreme court convened at 10:30 o'clock A M; full bench being present.

Lucy J Cressey, resp., vs William Fatu, L M Hall and W E Cressey, apps.—Argued and submitted.

In the matter of the estate of Sarah Ann [illegible]; E H Montague, administrator, resp., vs B[illegible] Simson et al.—Cause on trial.

Ordered that the court take recess until 1:30 o'clock P M.

Day of Fasting and Prayer.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb 17.—In accordance with a recommendation from the Ministerial union that to-day be observed as a day of fasting and prayer, the various Protestant churches of this city and Oakland belonging to the union had appropriate exercises this evening, a large crowd attending.

Starved to Death.

This afternoon a woman was found dead in a house near the corner of Pacific and Front streets. It is reported that she died of starvation.

NEVADA.

Mining Troubles.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb 17.—Labor troubles in Lewis mining district, Lander county, Nevada, are assuming a serious shape. A miners' union has been formed which demands $4 per day for men who were previously receiving $3½ in mines which are only 200 feet deep. Mob violence is threatened in consequence of this. The Star Grove mine has shut down and the Betty O'Neil will probably do the same unless the men who are willing to work for $3.50 are unmolested.

British Columbia Items.

VICTORIA, Feb 16.—The fire at the [illegible] river coal mine is reported under control.

The weather is clear and cold, wind blowing from the northwest.

The steamship Hylton Castle and bark C. Adams from San Francisco passed into Departure bay yesterday.

The case of Sewell, owner of the lost ship Thrasher, vs the owners of the tugs that were towing the ship at the time of the disaster is set for trial.

A motion has been introduced in the local house to provide for religious exercises in public schools.

Western Oregon.

Mrs Sophie Shwicker died at the residence of her son-in-law, Chas Logus, Oregon City, on the 1[illegible]th inst., aged 8[illegible] years.

The salary of the deputy sheriff of Clackamas county has been fixed by the county court at $500 per annum; that of deputy [illegible] per annum.

The steam ferryboat reached Salem Tuesday and will be placed on the route as soon as the road can be cleared at the Polk county landing. The boat is neat and substantial and will answer the business for a number of years.

Beef cattle are now getting scarce. Mr [illegible], one of our butchers, looked through [illegible] cattle last Sunday without finding one fat enough to kill.

Farmer Smith a short time ago killed a grizzly bear on Waterman Flat near [illegible] which weighed about 800 pounds. Several more have been seen near the same place this winter.

Hunters killed seven cougars lately on [illegible]. There has also been great destruction of deer in the same neighborhood, one hunter having killed [illegible] and another [illegible]. Deer are reported very numerous throughout the country.

A. W. Knapp, one of the early settlers of Powder River valley, died at Oro Dell on the 4th inst., aged 71 years. His death was very sudden. He was opening up a vegetable pit and fell down dead, probably from disease of the heart.

A John Day correspondent says: New grass is showing up finely in John Day valley. People of that section—in fact all along the route between The Dalles and Canyon City—are complaining about the mails being irregular, but the terrible condition of the road and the swollen streams will readily account for the irregularity. Mail carriers deserve credit for their energy and perseverance in performing the services required of them, and under the circumstances, people ought to feel grateful in receiving mail at all.

Washington Territory.

A band of 700 sheep were sold near [illegible] recently for $2 [illegible] per head.

The Pacific Censor will do the county printing for Clarke county for the unexpired portion of the present fiscal year.

The flouring mill at Pataha city has two runs of burrs with room for another, which will be added when needed. It has a grinding capacity of [illegible]0 barrels in 24 hours.

The school money due Spokan county from Stevens county amounting to $1,2[illegible] 44 has been paid in to the treasury of the latter and the allotment to the districts has been made.

Last Thursday Mr Wallace of Haw[illegible], Wallace & Co., Walla Walla, went to Dayton for the purpose of organizing the First National Bank of Dayton with a capital of $50,000. John Berr[illegible] will be the cashier of the new bank.

The reported death of Mrs Jack Fa[illegible] from cold and exposure near Walla Walla was unfounded. The rumor grew out of the fact that she was gone many hours from home during a severe storm and when found she was in such a condition that faint hopes were entertained of her recovery. She was out all of one night, during which she sheltered herself from the storm by building a hut of snow.

A barn belonging to Chris Maiers near Walla Walla was burned last week, the fire starting from a pipe being lighted in the barn by one of the hired men. The fire was so fierce that a horse standing in the stable had to be left there to perish. The barn and most of the contents including about 25 tons of hay, six sets of harness, a lot of tools, etc., were totally destroyed, while 7000 bushels of wheat were badly damaged. The loss was between $[illegible]00 and $1600.

Walla Walla Union: The railroad hospital tent on the Tukanon was, it was thought, placed above high water mark. One night last week, however, the water ran nearly two feet deep in the tent and some of the patients had to be removed. The water in the dispensary tent occupied by Dr Littlefield, which had been pitched on lower ground, rose to the depth of nearly four feet. Dr Littlefield's clothes and a large stock of medical supplies were carried away by the flood.

CANADA.

President Appointed for the Canadian Pacific.

MONTREAL, Feb 17.—The Pacific Railroad was organized to-day by the appointment of Geo Stephen president.

"Well, you are the biggest goose I ever see," said an uncultivated but honest Bostonian to the partner of his joys and sorrows. And she, who had had the advantage of a public school education, smiled upon him with a seraphic smile as she replied: "Oh hubby, you are such a self forgetful darling."

Everybody that has tried Ammen's Cough Syrup continues its use, besides they tell their neighbors of it. We were in a drug store the other day and a customer asked for a bottle of Ammen's Cough Syrup, saying "I do not know anything about it myself but my neighbor advised me to buy it for my cold and tells me that the use of three bottles has entirely cured his cough of two years standing." In fact he says "It is the best medicine in the world for coughs, colds and lung complaints, and that a one dollar bottle did him more good than all the prescriptions he had from the doctors."

STATE TEMPERANCE ALLIANCE.

SECOND DAY.

Forenoon Session.

The alliance met at the hall of the Y M C A, Dr J W Watts presiding.

[illegible] the secretary read a call for a national convention to be held in Saratoga Springs, N Y, June 1[illegible], [illegible] delegates.

A committee on legislation consisting of J. W. Ryan, David Newsome, Bart Allen, J. C. Cooper and Mr Dr Thompson was appointed.

Salem, Albany and McMinnville asked the alliance to hold its next annual meeting with them. As the result of the ballot Salem was selected.

A ten minutes recess was quickly enjoyed by all present as a season of sociable intercourse.

Resolutions of commendation and gratitude were passed as an expression of feeling universally entertained toward Dr J W Watts, the president, for his untiring devotion to the work.

Resolutions commending Rev L A Banks for his fearless and persistent prosecution of the cause of temperance. His journalistic venture, known as the Inland Censor, published at Vancouver, W. T., was highly commended in view of its broad and impartial treatment of intemperance.

A discussion of the tobacco question pending the adoption of a resolution presented by Dr York was incidentally indulged in and brought out some good strong words from the delegates present.

The report of the committee on resolutions occupied the attention of the alliance until time of adjournment, when the document was recommitted, to be made the special subject for discussion at 2:15 P M.

Afternoon Session.

Called to order by the president at 2 P M. Prayer by Rev J H Teare of Oregon City.

By vote it was decided to adjourn at 10 o'clock P M to-day (Friday).

Hon David Newsome of Salem presented the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That we will unite our efforts and we call upon all the friends of temperance in Oregon to unite with us in petitioning the next legislature at Salem (1882) to enact a stringent civil damage law at that time.

The election of delegates to the national convention was taken up, and J. W. Watts, president, and J. D. Houston, secretary, and Rev J S Griffin were elected. Four other delegates are to be selected, and the executive committee are to secure such delegates as can probably attend.

The special order of business was taken up and the residue of the resolutions from the committee were fully discussed and finally adopted.

Resolutions.

Resolved, That the Oregon State Temperance Alliance takes this the earliest opportunity afforded of expressing its profound disappointment and regret at the course the legislature of this state pursued in refusing to pass a civil damage act for this state or any act whatever to check the growth of the terrible scourge—intemperance.

Resolved, That we renew our pledges never to cease our work and labors until the organic law of the state of Oregon is so amended as to forever banish all kinds and classes of intoxicating liquors from the state; and to the end that this object may be attained we favor submitting to the voters of the state at as early a day as possible an amendment to the constitution, providing for the entire prohibition of the manufacture, importation, sale, or giving away as a beverage any intoxicating liquor whatever.

Resolved, That as an effectual means to the accomplishment of all the ends had in view by this alliance we look to and rely upon the assistance of the Christian church and Christian people as well as the united and hearty co-operation of all other organizations of the state whose object is to reclaim and reform the inebriate and build up a strong and healthy temperance sentiment among the people.

Resolved, That we invite all lovers of temperance and sobriety of all political parties and all branches of the Christian church to join in the grand work of redeeming [illegible] state and nation from the [illegible] of strong drink.

The following [illegible] resolution [illegible]:

The president of Orange (free state) telegraphs that he has taken stringent precautions to preserve the neutrality of the state.

THE FAMOUS OPERA SINGERS.

Annie Louise Cary and Clara Louise Kellogg are beyond question the most famous opera singers of modern times. In fact they have been acknowledged to be the leaders of their profession, as well as ladies of large experience and particularly good taste. They have probably traveled more extensively than any ladies on the stage and as a consequence have had excellent opportunities of judging of the merits of different countries and their productions. It is certainly a very great credit to California and the balmy semi-tropical climate of the Pacific to have had them pronounce Steele's Yosemite Cologne the best they have ever used in any country. NEWS NOTES FROM SALEM.

[REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE OF THE OREGONIAN.]

SALEM, Feb 17, 1881.

Circuit court in session with a large docket.

Dr T. C. Smith is [illegible] still confined to his [illegible].

The private [illegible] the [illegible] evening is the theme of [illegible] Salem society [illegible].

The blank books for the sheriff and county clerk returns are now complete and will be sent out during the coming week.

The forthcoming [illegible] promises [illegible] success and large numbers [illegible] give promise of being in attendance.

About three inches of snow fell here upon the level early Tuesday morning and still remains [illegible] the depth of two inches or more.

F. K. Campbell, formerly of your city, has been appointed guard at the penitentiary vice Geo W Fletcher, promoted to the office of commissary.

Hon. R. I. Ferbert, grand master of A. F. & A. M. of the State of Oregon, has been invited to officiate at the funeral in East Portland to-morrow of Dr J C Hawthorne, and has signified his acceptance of the same.

The condition of C. D. Snyder, Esq., formerly of your city, is very critical at present. His wife is now with him at Mehama, where he has been for several months hopeful that the mountain air would prove beneficial.

The surprise supper given by the ladies of the Shakespeare Club to their gentlemen friends, members of the same society, on Tuesday evening last proved a very pleasant affair, ending up with a highly dignified trip of the light fantastic toe.

Thos R. Brown, formerly of the firm of R. M. Wade & Co. of this city, has purchased an extensive hardware establishment at New Tacoma, and will locate there permanently. His many friends here wish him abundant success in his new departure.

The state printers are already smacking their lips in anticipation of the banquet shortly to be provided for them by Gen. W. H. Odell, state printer, and Hon. L. M. Waite, ex officio. It promises to be a feast of reason and a flow of soul, and as the ex officio aforesaid has opened his heart and promised something unusual fine, the realization we doubt not will in this instance at least far exceed the anticipations of even the most sanguine type in the city.

The governor has recently granted the following commutations: Chas A. Jackson, sent from Umatilla county for larceny, for two years from May 7, 18[illegible]; William Smith, sentenced from Umatilla county for larceny from a dwelling, for two years from May 7, 187[illegible]; and John McCaran, sent from Clackamas county for larceny, for two years from May 8, 18[illegible]. Reasons assigned: Uniform good conduct and term of sentence having nearly expired. His excellency the governor has made the following executive appointments: B. F. Goodwin of Portland, notary public; Hugo Kanzler of 465 Broome st., New York city, and F. J. Jones of 31 Court street, Boston, Mass., commissioners for Oregon.

Catarrhal
POISON

Wei De Meyer's Treatise on Catarrh, explains the following important facts:

1 That Catarrhal Colds become a poisonous infection, at first local and [illegible] constitutional.

2 That, being constitutional, the infection is beyond the reach of mere local remedies.

3 That impurities in the nostrils are necessarily swallowed into the stomach and inhaled into the lungs, thus poisoning the Digestive, Respiratory and Genito-urinary organs.

4 That Catarrhal virus follows the mucous membrane and causes Deafness, Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhoea, Bronchitis, Leucorrhoea and Consumption.

5 That Smokes, Douches, Inhalations and Insoluble Snuffs cannot possibly remove infectious inflammation from the organ named.

6 That an antidote for Catarrh must possess an inoculative affinity for and the quality of being absorbed by, the purulent mucous wherever located.

Based upon these plain theories, Dr. Wei De Meyer's Catarrh Cure has proved to be infallible. It not only relieves, it cures Catarrh at any stage. Home testimony:

THE COMSTOCK MINES

It was long a passion with large classes of people on the Pacific slope to put their money into the Comstock mines. Bitter experience has cured most of them of it but the consequences remain in derangement of legitimate business and in disastrous losses to those least able to bear them and in aggrandizement of the few and in the poverty of the multitude. These stocks are now hit with little prospect let it be hoped that they will ever boom again. Only fifteen mines on the Comstock have ever paid dividends and in the case of several of these the dividends have been less than the assessments. Only four mines namely Consolidated Virginia California, Belcher and Crown Point have produced large returns. The total dividends of all the Comstock mines foot up $125,342,900. Of this aggregate the four mines above named produced nearly $100,000,000. On Yellow Jacket there have been assessments to the total amount of $1,875,000 while the dividends have been but $2,184,000. Ophir's dividends have been only $1,594,000 while its assessments foot up $2,078,000. And so on through the list. The assessments of the Comstock companies which have levied more than $100,000 each aggregate $58,723,000, while the dividends outside of the four mines above named, have not exceeded $1,000,000. This statement does not include assessments by those companies which have dissolved or have been absorbed by others. Were they taken into the account the list of assessments would be swelled much more. But the disparity between assessments and dividends in the case of most of these mines does not represent any large part of the actual losses. These can only be comprehended by taking into consideration the results of gambling in the stocks of these mines, which has been carried on with a perfect passion during so long a series of years. No finer scheme was ever devised for impoverishing the many and enriching the few. The numbers of the victims and the amounts of their losses are beyond all calculation. Avarice and credulity made them over and over again an easy prey for sharpers, who studied this astonishing popular delusion and did a regular business upon it. A recent California publication presents some caustic strictures upon mine management. Some of the mines the writer says,—and on deliberation he might have said all of them—are managed as if the only persons entitled to know anything about them are the few who control the board of directors, as if these should attend to nothing save the levy of assessments and participation in "deals," designed to plunder credulous and excitable speculators. The superintendents generally are not mining engineers and are incapable of making trustworthy reports upon the condition of their mines and they are not in the habit of submitting clear and comprehensive reports of their work. We hear little of mining engineers and much of mining experts who, as a class, are noted as much for inveracity as for ignorance. The superintendent is, in many cases the servant of the magnate controlling the mine appointed to aid in tricks to raise or depress the stock and his incompetent and wasteful expenditure in the mine is subjected to no impartial and competent supervision. As a natural consequence under such a system, honest people are impoverished and dishonest men are enriched. The wonder is that the public credulity lasted so long. Because three or four mines for a time yielded large profits, and because these profits and gains of dishonest speculation in stocks made a few men very rich the multitude jumped to the conclusion that there was not only a chance but a sure thing for everyone who might participate in this form of speculation, and millions on millions were staked again and again on a game in which the dealers held all the points. No one who neglects to study this phenomenon can obtain an adequate idea of the breadth and depth of human gullibility. At last however the public shows signs that it is tired of being cheated and robbed. The flat market for mining stocks sufficiently attests this fact.

The figures given above refer only to the Comstock mines. If account were taken of the sums sunk in other districts in the sage brush region the total would be vastly increased. It is said that during the last five years not less than $65,000,000 has been collected in San Francisco on mining assessments mostly on Nevada stocks representing mines that have yielded hardly $50,000,000. This vast sum has not come out of the pockets of mining adventurers, but out of those of the stock speculating public. So long as people could be allured by the dazzling light of dividends from bonanza mines this system of swindling could be kept up. But fortunately the whole structure of deception and fraud has dissolved. Yet such is human nature that the merest rumors of "paying ore" would start the gambling excitement again.

There can be no doubt that the Comstock lode has cost the country more than its total yield is worth—five times over. Expenditure of the same amount of energy, labor and capital in other directions would have produced far more wealth and wealth of a far more permanent character. Nevada is poorer to-day than ten years ago. So, as a consequence of Nevada's mines, are thousands of people in California and Oregon. A few pursy magnates disport themselves in the insolence of upstart wealth and on these superhuman beings the world is invited to look with awe or admiration. Here is the net product of this bonanza wonder.

A REPUDIATING STATE.

By her leading newspaper, the St. Paul Pioneer Press, Minnesota is called "a rich and beautiful harlot," because she repudiated years ago and still refuses to pay the state railroad bonds to which she pledged her faith thirty-three years since. The debt was repudiated when the state was poor. Even poverty is now no longer an excuse. In twenty years the property of the state has increased ten fold. This debt could now be paid with very little taxation and the governor of the state in a recent message, urged that it be done. Several propositions looking to this end have heretofore been made but the people have persistently voted them down. The press of the country has made the governor's recent message the subject of extended editorial comments which are not flattering to Minnesota. All pass the same unqualified condemnation upon the state for this continued shame and crime of repudiation. Referring to these comments, the St Paul journal says "All the beauties and glories of Minnesota, its splendid natural endowments of soil and climate; all the affluence of its golden harvests which fill its homes with plenty, all its rapid strides in power and population and opulence all its otherwise noble social and political history, its patriotic devotion in war and peace to the great law of liberty, its fidelity to the principles of national honor, its interior life of honest popular zeal for education and religion and morality and all that makes the citizen respectable and life beautiful—all these are turned to shame by this cancer of public dishonor, which corrodes the heart and conscience of its people. For the world knows and all honest citizens of the state know that Minnesota with all her splendid dowry of wealth and resources and with all her gifts of grace and beauty stands among her vestal sisters of the north like a harlot arrayed in gorgeous garments and decorated with jewels but lacking the one jewel which is worth a thousand times all her sovereign diadem and despised and dishonored all the more for the flaunted riches which proclaim the gratuitous effrontery and callous impudence of her shame."

Sandy Hook bar at the entrance of New York harbor has shoaled so much that adoption of some thorough system of deepening it is becoming necessary. We have a pamphlet on the subject containing an argument by Henry P. Knapp, civil engineer in support of a plan of his own suggestion together with various communications on the same from the board of engineers and the war department. There are few harbors in the world so favored by nature as not to require improvement. Prodigious sums have been spent at the port of New York. Some ten years ago an old mariner who had often sailed in and out there from 1820 to 1828, remarked in our hearing that the entrance to the Columbia river was easier better and safer than the natural entrance to New York harbor. Improvement of navigation there by artificial means and employment of powerful tugs have made the port of New York what it is. Of course as that port has been for more than fifty years the most important one in America all the money deemed necessary for keeping it open to deepest vessels has been granted steadily and without hesitation.

The journal which was the original boomer for the third term for Grant—the St Louis Globe democrat—would win the hero from the company of the plutocrats to the quiet shades of Galena where he has a house of his own. It says: "An item has been going the rounds of the press to the effect that Gen Grant still claims Galena, Illinois as his residence. The pity of it is that he ever made a doubt possible on the subject. Grant passing the evening of his life—which we trust will be a very long summer evening, too,—at his modest house in Galena would be a far more heroic character for history than Grant living in style in New York as a pensioner on the bounty of a few millionaires. If Grant has permanently left Galena he has committed the greatest mistake of his life." It seems probable, however and nevertheless, that this is what he has actually done.

Judge Lynch and lynch law have been usually supposed of American origin, but some doubt is thrown upon this by the Pall Mall Gazette, which says that the Virginian farmer named Lynch who flogged a thief with his own hands "had probably no claim to the honor ascribed to him by a doubtful tradition. There was a Judge Lynch who was sent to America in 1687 88 to suppress piracy, but the real Lynch is said to have been a certain mayor of Galway at the close of the fifteenth century, who became famous for hanging his own son with his own hands out of an upper window, in execution of a death sentence passed upon him for robbery and murder. In this country the Virginia Lynch has usually had the credit of originating extra judicial proceedings, and the name which had been given to them probably did not come into general use until a time comparatively modern.

A very dirty scrub named Parker has been dismissed from the agency of the associated press at Walla Walla, and readers of the Walla Walla Statesman (if there be any) may see in the scurrility of that paper towards the editor of The Oregonian a token that the said dirty scrub Parker deems himself badly injured by the substitution of a gentleman of ability and character for himself in the agency of the associated press at the point named. P B Johnson Esq is agent of the associated press at Walla Walla.

As a cotton-producing country India is failing in competition with the United States. The British government has made great exertions to extend the growth of cotton in India but in spite of all these efforts there has been a decline of 23 per cent in the acreage during the last three years, while the yield per acre has fallen 15 per cent. It is said there is no profit in the business and that the idea of making India a great cotton country will probably be given up.

It is an astounding fact that the value of opium imported into China is still larger than that of any other article. The opium import of 1879 was $50,700,000 in value, out of a total of imports coming to $114,150,000. Cotton goods, the heaviest item except opium, came to $31,400,000. The exports from China were $100,400,000 of which $46,000,000 was the value of tea, and $40,000,000 that of silk.

The rational method of temperance reform is making progress. Under this method reform does not waste all its strength in worrying the liquor seller but employs large part of it in wrestling with the liquor drinker. Remarks of many speakers in the state temperance alliance show that this principle is coming to be understood as the secret of real reform.

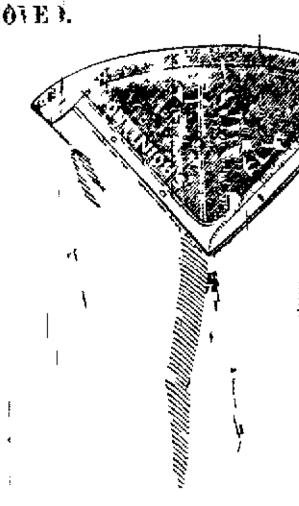
"BOSS OF THE ROAD" OVERALLS,

IMPROVED.



The unparalleled popularity of the "Boss of the Road" Overalls has induced several manufacturers to imitate them with an inferior class of work.

To protect our customers from such imposition; to place an Overall on the market which shall SURPASS all others in strength, while as elegant in cut as the most fastidious could desire, and, above all, to furnish an article AS CHEAP AS THE CHEAPEST, we determined to improve them by the addition of our

PATENTED CONTINUOUS FLY,

Heretofore only used in Standard make of Overalls. With this valuable improvement we guarantee our "Boss of the Road" Overall as the BEST and MOST SERVICEABLE ARTICLE, at the price, to be had in the United States.

Manufacturers and Dealers are specially cautioned against infringement on letters patent covering the Continuous Fly.

Ask your dealer for the "Boss of the Road" Overall; insist on getting it, and take none other.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

WASHINGTON, Feb 18—1:30—North Pacific coast ... cloudy weather with rains, for California fair weather.

CITY.

AN UNSATISFACTORY HORSE TRADE —Last Sunday a week ago Henry Worden, a young farmer living ... the city, swapped horses with Perry G Baker ... Worden alleges that Baker imposed on his credulity by trading him a horse, though large and fine looking, that was old, blind, wind broken, stove up in the shoulders and spavined, and besides that had the heaves, and was ... Perry gave him $20 to boot. Two days after Worden brought the horse back, together with the ... and wanted to rue bargain, but Baker declined to negotiate on those terms. He was entirely satisfied with the trade. Worden then began suit for ... in the justice court of R E Bybee, before whom and a jury the case was in progress late last night. The plaintiff was represented by ... and Baker by M T Bingham ... decision ... which will be reached to-day, will settle for ... whether the beater ... in a horse trade has ... right that the beater is bound to ...

FIRE —The services of the department were called into requisition for the first time this year at 7:30 last night by a fire which broke out in a one story frame building on the north side of Madison street between First and Second ... occupied by Lazarus Jacobs ... The flames communicated to the two story building adjoining on the west, occupied by Jacobs ... second hand furniture store and by Mrs ... and Mrs Owens as dwellings. The buildings were owned by H S Allen, whose loss is about $700. Jacobs is about $1000. He is insured ... $500 ... in the State Investment and ... Western. Allen has a policy of $500 ... nearly cover his loss.

HEAVY LOSS —The Oregon City Enterprise says ... the last rise Mr L Saldern had a boom of ... washed away in the Tualatin containing about 250,000 feet and worth $500. Messrs Mat and Ben Athey lost about 40,000 feet. Both these booms came down and tore out Mr George B Broughton's boom at the mouth of that stream, causing him the loss his boom worth $150 and also about 40,000 feet of logs. Mr Saldern seems to be very unfortunate, as one year ago by a freshet he lost a boom of logs representing a whole year's work.

FIREMEN'S ELECTION —The following are the officers elected by Columbia Hook & Ladder Company No 1, at Oregon City: Foreman, C C Strickler; 1st assistant, M W Randall; 2d assistant, F W Greenman; president, Dr White; secretary, W T Whitlock; treasurer, Geo Broughton; delegates to the board of delegates, F H Charman, C C Strickler and W T Whitlock. J G Pilsbury was nominated chief engineer and Jacob Mader of Fountain Hose Company No 1, assistant chief.

CAUSE ON TRIAL —The case of State of Oregon vs George Murphy and John Lynch was on trial yesterday afternoon. The state was represented by District Attorney Caples and M F Mulkey, and Messrs Ball and Gregory appeared for the defense. On motion of the counsel the defendants were allowed separate trials. Lynch was on trial. The case will probably not reach the jury until some time this forenoon.

PARALYZED —About two weeks ago, Mrs Barbara Royal was paralyzed at her home near Vancouver, W T. Since then she has full possession of her faculties though one side of her body is helpless. She is however improved in that respect. The many friends of Mrs Royal while they sympathize with her in her affliction will be glad to learn that her case is no worse. She is about 82 years of age.

FIRST SHIPMENT —The large new boot and shoe factory of C Linenweber & Co at Astoria has been in operation since Monday, and yesterday the first product of the factory, 150 cases of boots, were shipped to Aktu Selling & Co of this city. This new enterprise promises to become one of the great industries of the state.

ENTERTAINMENT —A musical and literary entertainment given by the members of the Congregational church for the benefit of the Sunday school library will take place at that church this evening. They present an excellent programme and it will no doubt be a very entertaining and enjoyable affair.

DISAGREED AND DISCHARGED —In the U S circuit court Wednesday the case of Sapagin, charged with the manufacturing of hoochino, was on trial. The jury retired, but after being out for some time failed to agree upon a verdict and was discharged. Yesterday the same case was on trial again.

ALL RIGHT —In THE OREGONIAN of yesterday mention was made of the disappearance of the young man Ned Richards, and also of the fact that some anxiety was felt. His friends will be pleased to learn that he returned to Oswego yesterday morning, all right.

MASONS INVITED —All members of the Masonic fraternity both in Portland and East Portland are cordially invited to attend the funeral of the late Dr J C Hawthorne, which will take place this (Friday) afternoon at 1 o'clock from St David's church.

THE STEAMER —The Columbia arrived in Baker's bay at 7 o'clock yesterday morning, anchored there or three hours waiting for high water, arrived in Astoria at 1 P M, left for Portland at ..., but had not arrived when we went to press.

LECTURE —Rev J A Cruzan will lecture this (Friday) evening at Neppach's Hall, East Portland. His subject will be "Success, How to Win it." The proceeds will be donated to the First Baptist church of that place.

TEMPERANCE RALLY —Rev J A Cruzan has tendered the use of the Congregational church to the state Temperance Alliance for a grand temperance rally to be held Sunday evening.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES —Services will be held by Rev Robert Abrahamson at the Synagogue, Ahavi Sholum this (Friday) evening at 5 o'clock, and Saturday morning at 9:30 o'clock.

SENTENCED —Judge Stott sentenced Ah Hing to the penitentiary Thursday afternoon for the period of two years. Ah Hing will probably be taken to the penitentiary to-day.

OFFICE ESTABLISHED —Wells Fargo & Co have recently established an office at Blalocks, Umatilla county. This will be a great public convenience to that section.

COMMISSIONER OF DEEDS —R D Pitt has been appointed commissioner of deeds for the states of New York, Kansas and Nevada, to reside in this city.

RELIGIOUS NOTES.

[Advocate and Sentinel.]

Archbishop Seghers returned from The Dalles via Vancouver on Thursday.

We are pained to learn that Rev. Father Leroy of Victoria is dangerously ill in that city.

Rev Fathers Dols and Bibney left on the State of California last Saturday, the former for his new field in Montana and the latter for the scenes of his youth in Ireland.

The new church at Tre...e City on Pudding river, in Marion county is finished and ready for dedication. The edifice was erected by the Catholics in and around this new city under the direction of Rev J J Dols, recently of Gervais, who deserves great credit for his energy and perseverance in this matter. The Catholics of the place are accorded great praise by Father Dols for the liberality and zeal manifested, a proof of which is that there rests but $35 of a debt on the church, which is more than likely already paid. The church is 24x42 and quite a model of beauty. When it will be dedicated to the service of God has not yet been decided.

THE LEVEE FOR $2500.

Full Text of the Ordinance Introduced in the Council Wednesday Evening.

An ordinance to provide for the sale of the public levee property.

The city of Portland does ordain as follows: That upon the payment of the sum of $2500 to the city treasurer by the Oregonian Railway Company, limited, the committee on landings and wharves of this city or a majority of them and the city auditor and clerk of this city do make to the said Oregonian Railway Company limited for and on behalf of this city a deed without covenants, which shall convey to said company all the right, title and interest of the city of Portland in and to the property heretofore conveyed to it by Stephen Coffin and others and commonly known as the public levee, and that upon the execution of said deed the suit now pending, in which the city is plaintiff and said railway company is defendant be dismissed, and the city attorney be and is hereby directed to dismiss all suits and actions now pending and brought by this city against said company.

FUNERAL OF DR J C HAWTHORNE.

The funeral of the late J C Hawthorne will take place this (Friday) afternoon at 1 o'clock from St David's church, East Portland. About 12 o'clock the remains will be conveyed from the residence of the family to the church, where appropriate services will be held. At the close of the exercises the body will be taken to Lone Fir cemetery and laid to rest.

All friends of the deceased who desire to take a farewell look at the remains will have an opportunity to do so by calling at the residence of the family any time during the morning prior to the removal of the remains to the church.

The following gentlemen will act as pall bearers: Hon J N Dolph, Hon J B Congle, Hon Sol Hirsch, Hon Henry Failing, Hon E D Shattuck, Hon C B Bellinger, Hon J A Chapman, and Mr James B Stephens.

A. O. H. BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

There will be a special meeting this evening at A O H Hall, over F Catalin's store, First street near Stark, at 7:30 sharp. Division members are invited to attend.

AMUSEMENTS

LAST NIGHT'S PERFORMANCE —That the play "Our Boys" had lost none of its ... the public of this city was most abundantly attested by the large and critical audience present last evening on the occasion of its repetition. Every seat in the dress circle found an occupant and the gallery was filled. It was a ... well satisfied ... in fact a very jolly ... there ... entertainment and it ... their enjoyment they ... The ... mirth ... was the repetition of last night's ... interest to the ... of the ... comedy is ... of the different characters ... has ... equal opportunities ... While ... of the interest of the play is centered in the ... assumed by Mr Owens ... the whole.

Of Mr Owens's impersonation of the character of the ... Middlewick it is scarcely necessary to speak ... delineator of eccentric comedy he is without a superior on the speaking stage. Both the press and public have accorded him this enviable distinction. More efficient support could not have been ... each member seeming to understand what measure of excellence was required by the cultivated tastes of the audience and striving to realize their expectations. Without particularizing, it can be truthfully said that each filled their allotted role with individual credit and satisfaction to the auditors.

From the very liberal patronage and the general satisfaction expressed by those who have witnessed "Our Boys" ... would ... that it be repeated ... Saturday afternoon.

SOLON SHINGLE —This evening the popular comedy "Solon Shingle" will be produced for the first time in this city, Mr Owens appearing in his great impersonation of "John Unit." This play was written expressly for Mr Owens and has been produced by him with great success in many of the large cities east. The piece will be produced with splendid scenic and mechanical effects. In its presentation of Solon, Mr Owens will be supported by the full company.

CONTINUED COLD

Lowest Temperature of the Season at Umatilla Yesterday

A little straggling drift of the blizzard which has prevailed throughout the east has started this way and struck in at Umatilla. West of that point the weather is comparatively moderate. Boats made regular trips yesterday, but the dispatches below indicate that the upper river will not be navigable to-day. However, there's no telling this winter what the weather is going to do, and there may be a warm spell by to-night—but perhaps not. Following are yesterday's telegrams:

8:30 A M

Umatilla—Heavy fog, thermometer 8, south breeze, considerable shore ice formed during the night; last night was the coldest of the season; at 7 A M the thermometer was 4 above zero.

Dalles—Cloudy, calm, thermometer 20, no ice in river.

Cascades—Cloudy, light down stream wind, thermometer 28.

Blalock's—Cloudy, down wind, thermometer 12, no ice in river yet.

Wallula—Cloudy, heavy fog, thermometer 16—was 6 at 12 o'clock last night, river full of running ice.

Celilo—Cloudy, light down wind, thermometer 18.

Rooster Rock—Cloudy, east wind, thermometer 28.

6 P M

Celilo—Light down stream wind, thermometer 26.

Wallula—Clear, no wind, thermometer 19, river falling, ice not running in Snake at all and very little now in the Columbia.

Umatilla—Cloudy, light up stream breeze, thermometer 16, has not been higher than 20, indications of another very cold night, some scale ice running and shore ice forming fast, thermometer last night down to zero.

Cascades—Clear, light down stream wind, thermometer 31.

Dalles—Thermometer 26, calm, river fell 6 inches in past 24 hours.

LEE SAM'S BANKRUPTCY.

The failure of Lee Sam, or as he is better known the Coung Lee Young Co, is more ramifying than at first reported, and increases in magnitude as new developments come to light. Tong Duck Chung, Chung Yun and Hop Chung, three rich firms have endorsed for him to the extent of $9000 at Ladd & Tilton's and the First National bank and will of course have that amount to pay. Sam furnished all the Chinese laborers on the O R & N Co and the Western Oregon railroads and owes every one of them. Most of the men deposited their wages with him, he acting as their banker. He owes one gang of four men on the Reedville section $2000—the accumulations of three years work.

Another cause of his failure, in addition to those previously reported, is that he lost money heavily on his labor contracts with the O R & N Co and the Northern Pacific last summer. He agreed to furnish a large number of men and to fulfill such contract was obliged to send to San Francisco for them. The expense of passage from the Bay city to points in eastern Oregon was about $20 per head and this was a dead loss. As far as known his liabilities are $60,000, of which $20,000 is due to Americans and $40,000 to Chinese. His whereabouts is still unknown.

CONCERT.

The third of the very popular series of concerts given by the Open Temperance organization will take place on Saturday evening next at 7:30, at the rooms of the Y M C A. The programme will be one of the best yet presented and will embrace some of the very best talent in the city, and will include such popular vocalists as Mrs Cruzan as well as new and excellent talent from abroad. There will be orchestral pieces rendered on violin, flute, cornet, clarionet and piano. Readings and recitations of Major Sears will be an important feature in the amusement of the evening. See full programme in to-morrow's issue.

MISS SPALDING'S LECTURE.

Miss Spalding's lecture on Monday evening was an intellectual achievement, a mind of rich thoughts, a writing ... it met the keenest and most intense interest—an interest too earnest to ... for applause. The ... should be given in full, but limits do not permit this.

The story of philanthropy ... is ... an interesting one, but philanthropy, like the spirit of truth, is a thing of slow growth ... public ... but ... will take on false proportions and does not readily adjust itself to the ... wheels of human machinery. It is a force that must be fully restrictive ... annot be at ... power either as it pertains to individual exertion ... The ... philanthropy ... The great ... its single ... The birth ... work for it, while the wind and the tide of public sentiment ... set against them ... This is true of state charities as well ... The impulse of a ... Darling, or a ... may have been ... requirements of the present age ... that ...

A new ... philanthropy is that ... a national ... It does not ... to know ... to make perfect, but to improve ... during ... years of its existence ... With this ... preamble the lecturer ... her subject proper ... of all ... the ... helpless. They suffer not only from the ... plays ... study to which ... but from ... the present century an eminent French physician was ... By dint of ... he effected the restoration ... the civilized world ... a disease ... largely to physical ... subject to logical investigation, amenable to treatment and not infrequently a curable disease. This ... has ... the attention of Great Britain ... France, and a truth that had slumbered since the days of Hippocrates, awoke from a sleep of twenty-three hundred years. The reform has passed through many stages ... It needs but to be planted in the bed rock of public opinion to make it strong and secure. The advance of science opens up a new reform, more ... but quite as radical as that of Pinel. We need an intelligent sentiment to make the public feel that the same degree of care should be exercised in preventing insanity that we did be given in case of typhoid fever or smallpox.

The lecturer continued: "If one can do nothing else it is something gained to think right and speak right on so grave a subject. But the question arises, What can the public do? What can I as an individual do? To this question there are two sets of answers. One as regards human being's common bond of brotherhood and sisterhood. The other as regards citizenship. To the first, as a human being you can help to secure universal recognition of the fact that it is no disgrace to be crazy. This is a part of the work in which all can engage. What over you would do to give sympathy and relief to any other form of affliction do for the insane, inso far as their condition will allow—'whatsoever you would have them do to you, were you in their place, and they in yours, do ye even so to them.'

If you should ask me if I have ever witnessed abuse in our asylums I should tell you yes, but it was the abuse of relatives and friends, not that of attendants. You would not think the tie of kinship could be sundered by accident or disease. Yet it sometimes is. It is not an unusual thing for one to be adjudged insane, carried to an asylum, put under locks and bars, and then left forever as if the whole duty of kindred were done. How often is the property that that person has accumulated or inherited, in either case what rightfully belongs to him, carefully hoarded by those who can lay any possible claim to it instead of being wisely expended for the recovery of the rightful owner. I am often led to remark that if the strangers to whom this class of unfortunates are ... trusted were not vastly more tender of their charge than ... the friends who commit them to it, the case of the insane would indeed be a hopeless one.

No ... was visible ... often say, How can any one visit the insane? If I should go to see them I could not believe I ... sleep for twenty four hours. Well ... It does one good to ... comfortable nap ... humanity ... the greatest ... nature ... of the state ... government ... life private ... It is ... like asylums ... aggravate ... allaying it. It aggregation of patients should not give place to segregation ... and running extravagant buildings would not be better spent in individual treatment ... cases curable. The state, the asylum and the ... stand too far apart. One living link should unite them. Until this shall be much of the efficiency of state beneficence and hospital management is lost.

A feeling testimonial of sympathy for the inmates of our own asylum at East Portland ... the loss at this time of their best and truest friend was ... introduced. There is no space in this synopsis which does but scant justice to the lecture, for a touching and beautiful episode in the life of Mr Alger, a most fitting link to the chain of the argument. It should be printed in full or ... where it may reach a greater number of hearers. It is a pity that the writer of this lecture should not be able to give her pen and time to the cause of humanity to the amelioration of the woes of mankind. The world needs more of such thinkers and writers.

MILITARY AND PERSONAL.

[Vancouver Independent.]

Capt James Miller, 2d infantry, has departed up the river to rejoin his company at Coeur d'Alene.

New quarters will be built for the military post at Fort Klamath this year. Lumber is already contracted for.

Mr L Cass Forsyth, A Q M, who recently went east from this department, is now stationed on duty in New York City.

Capt Robert Pollock, 21st infantry, arrived at the post on Monday from Fort Townsend and started on his return the same day.

1st Lieut Chas A H McCauley, 3d Cavalry, who is well known by many of our readers, has been promoted to assistant quartermaster with rank of captain.

Major G H Weeks, formerly depot quartermaster at Vancouver barracks, has been stopping with his family in Washington for a month past and will soon go to his station in the Department of Arkansas.

Surgeon G M Sternberg U S A, formerly stationed at Walla Walla, has translated from the French Dr Antonio Magnin's work, "The Bacteria," which will doubtless prove of much value to naturalists and physicians.

Lieut Col Alex Chambers, 21st infantry, arrived down from Fort Lapwai on Saturday last and is now in command of the regiment and the post to remain until the return of Col Morrow. Col Chambers left Fort Lapwai Jan 20th and was detained en route 17 days at Walla Walla by the closing of the river.

Bvt Maj Gen O O Howard, commanding the department of West Point, has retained for his personal staff 1st Lieut Joseph A Sladen, 14th infantry; 1st Lieut Chas E S Wood, 21st infantry, and 2d Lieut Guy Howard, 12th infantry, as A D C. Lieut Sladen is also acting assistant adjutant general of the department.

The officers at Vancouver barracks connected with the post and headquarters have this winter established near the headquarters building a very nice club room, fitted up with a billiard table, whist table, reading room, etc., all nicely carpeted and thorough in appointments. It serves as a place of social amusement and gatherings, enabling those concerned to pleasantly pass away many an otherwise dull hour of the winter season.

INSPECTOR SIMPSON AND THE MAILS.

PORTLAND, OR, Feb 17, 1881

To the Editor of The Oregonian:

DEAR SIR: In the ... the ... States ... editorial ... agent. In the first place I would advise the editor of that Lilliputian sheet to read the postal laws ... teach postal officials what their duty is. If ... he will find that it is no part of the postal agent's duty to see to the forwarding of the mail. Hon J H McClung ... of San Francisco ... superintendent of the railway mail service of the division comprising California, Nevada, Oregon and the territories of Alaska, Arizona, Idaho, Montana, Utah and Washington. Capt B B Tuttle is his ... agent for Oregon and Washington territory, and it is he that the mail agent for Washington territory and Oregon make their reports of the manner in which the mail is ... and he reports to Mr McClung ... San Francisco ... as far as the ... I am supposed to be attending to ... as post office inspector and looking after depredations ... infractions of the postal laws and regulations. It is true however that I have at all times since I have been in the postal service done everything in my power to have the mails carried promptly and properly. At ... the ... water in January I was at ... and the ... I found the ... was ... the Dalles ... that ... I arrived ... the ... evening ... the Astoria boat ... with Mr ... decided that I should ... Washington ... Mr ... authorized to contract ... carrying the mail ... I did ... the dispatches ... some two days for the order ... I ... through myself ... on account of the depth of snow ... will be remembered ... the ... Statesman ... in ... East ... Oregon ... all with ... mails ... The editor says ... that ... postal agent steamed up ... from Portland to the Klickitat ... then jumped ashore ... there was a wagon at hand by which ... to The Dalles, but it does not appear that ... heard of any break in the ... connections through this valley." As I said before there was no break of connections in the valley ... that line and if there had been, I was under just as much obligations to look after Eastern Oregon as Willamette valley. When I returned to Portland after failing to get through to The Dalles, I found that there was trouble up the valley. Railroad bridges were washed away and the depth of water on the track between Portland and Oregon City made it unsafe to pass over with the trains. To my personal knowledge the superintendent of the road was doing everything in his power to get through with the mails. I consulted again with Mr ... and we concluded that it would be best to get a steamer to take the mail that belonged to Upper Willamette valley. I went myself and made the effort but failed, as, on account of high water the locks at Oregon City were closed and of course boats could not pass through. It was then determined for the time being to send the mails up to McCoy, on the west side road and from there across to Salem and it was done. The Statesman says that a live agent would have had the mails through in some shape daily. Of course a live agent would not have allowed the high water that has been doing so much damage up the valley. Again, it is said that contractors should be looked after and see that they carry the mails. I would again suggest to this educator of postal officials that he read postal laws and regulations relating to the obligations of railroad officials who carry the U S mail and he will find that they are not contractors in the sense in which he speaks of them. All railroads are mail routes, and when the service is put on by the department it is at fixed rates per pound per mile and in case of unavoidable obstruction such as the track washing away or being covered by water so to make it unsafe to pass over they can say to the department, "You will have to make other arrangements for carrying the mail." As I said before I ... know that the ... in charge of the railroad did everything in their power to get the mails through. Having now ... that portion of the editorial ... referred ... as far as it relates directly to me ... mention the fact that ... at the time ... was at the time ... last high water in San Francisco on official business ... should not be held responsible for any irregularities that might have occurred during his absence. I will say however that if he had have been here he ... have ... more than was done.

At the time of the high water in January ... agent ... in Portland ... doing everything in his power to forward the mails in every direction ... correspondence with him all the time ... where I ... I am respectfully,

BEN SIMPSON, Postoffice Inspector.

THURSDAY EVENING Feb 1[illegible]

Transactions in the local wheat market during the past three days have been more [illegible] for several weeks preceding Several sales were made on Tuesday [illegible] or two in [illegible] shippers bought 10 000 bushels at $1 [illegible] and another 10 000 bushels at the same rate To-day there have been several small transactions on the same basis It is a [illegible] resulted from the [illegible] letting go of a few holders at rates which would have been [illegible] at any time during the past two months There is no change in the tonnage situation which might boom prices and the improvement in the European markets is not sufficient to affect this market to any extent It appears—but the volume of transactions has not as yet been great enough to show it certainly—that holders have concluded that there is no prospect for an advance and so are selling rather than hold over for a possible rise next fall Any considerable pressure on the market by holders would drop prices somewhat

Charter rates at San Francisco continue in favor of shipowners and vessels to arrive months from now are readily taken at our telegraphic quotations Advices from South America and China report tonnage scarce and rates high Australia will have 50 000 bales more wool this year than last and an extra fleet will be in demand there so that we may expect no relief from that quarter But two ships the Lizzie Iredale and Viola are due here within the next thirty days Both are chartered The Ryevale is at Astoria and the Archer at this city

Bad Weather and Loss of Stock.

Reports from the grazing localities of the state are distressing The weather continues very severe especially throughout eastern and southern Oregon and horses cattle and sheep are dying by thousands It is estimated by persons intelligent in regard to the matter that not more than sixty per cent of the stock of the state will survive the winter In Lake county ranchmen seem better prepared for bad weather than those of other sections and there the loss will not be so great but in eastern Oregon where the bunch grass is covered by a heavy crust of snow and where scarcely any preparation for winter was made last fall sheep are dying in heaps and other stock suffering greatly From Rock creek Wasco county, the center of a large sheep country we have a letter giving a pitiful story of starvation and death The writer says: So far I have lost 1200 from a band of 5000 sheep One of my neighbors has lost 2000 another 1800—all he had another has but 1[illegible] left out of a band of 7000 another lost 1900—all he had and nearly every man in this vicinity lost from one-fourth to three-fourths of his band Fully 14 000 head of sheep have died on this range in the past ten weeks also a great many horses and cattle The last storm left from 18 to 20 inches of snow on the ground, and it laid on for three weeks

A letter from Fifteen Mile creek Wasco county says that on the 13th snow was three feet deep and that all the stock of that section was in danger of starvation Horses and cattle are in a deplorable condition and there is nothing left in the country to feed them but wheat The loss already is very great In the Willamette valley bands of stock are not large and farmers generally are prepared with hay to feed during the winter Stock is suffering in some localities and there will be some loss This market is still well supplied with fat fresh meats though prices of course are affected by the severe weather We quote

MARK LANE REPORT

Of the English Grain Market—Damage by Floods, etc.

LONDON, Feb 1[illegible]—The Mark Lane Express in its review of the British grain trade for the past week says Deliveries have been in bad condition on account of the weather Dry samples of home grown are scarce and obtain fullest rates For the rest trade is gradually weakening There was a better demand for flour at last week's reduction but buyers operate slowly and cautiously, Foreign flour is in slow demand but with signs of improvement should rate moderate There was rather brisker business at the decline of Monday but American advices restricted this holders preferring to wait Spot and prospective supplies are ample and consequently it matters little how the American surplus is used Malting barley is weaker and all sorts are cheaper Fine samples are still scarce, but barley is generally difficult to sell, Foreign barley is slow with a dragging trade in favor of buyers Oats have improved throughout the whole country, and the whole of the recent decline was regained Foreign oats have also improved In maize there was very limited spot business at Monday's rates Stocks are short Off coast cargoes at end of week nil.

Sales English wheat for the past week 36 090 quarters at 43s 7d against 36 160 quarters at the same price for the corresponding week of last year

Imports into the United Kingdom during the week ending Feb 5th 1[illegible] cwts wheat [illegible] cwts flour

THE REAL ESTATE MARKET

The following special report of the real estate market is furnished the OREGONIAN by Clark & Upton real estate agents and architects

The business of the past week has been about average As compared with the month of February of last year the present month so far as it has progressed makes a somewhat better showing This is the more encouraging when it is remembered that the high water and inclement weather have co-acted in depressing and hindering business generally and real estate business in particular There are many indications of coming activity, which may reasonably be expected with finer weather Building will probably be on a larger scale than for many years past both of business [illegible] and private residences At no time during our [illegible] have we experienced [illegible] and [illegible] [illegible] that [illegible] spring [illegible] immigrants [illegible] [illegible] capital will [illegible] forth [illegible] [illegible] transfers [illegible] number 92 and amount [illegible] [illegible] amount $17 705 Couch's addition [illegible] amount [illegible] [illegible] Caruthers addition [illegible] $100 [illegible] [illegible] amount $17 [illegible] Country and [illegible] amount $5181

The European Salmon Market

[illegible] W D [illegible] of Liverpool has [illegible] on the salmon trade with its prospect [illegible]

There has [illegible] salmon [illegible] cases [illegible] largest pack [illegible] principally to that of the Columbia river which heads the list [illegible] present [illegible] stock [illegible] pool on hand in [illegible] arrived [illegible] 000 cases whilst [illegible] America may [illegible] 000 cases Taking these figures [illegible] tion with the pack [illegible] a million [illegible] for the twelve months Considering these facts it may seem surprising that holders have declined to [illegible] and higher prices rather than let the goods go into consumption at present obtainable rates With the aid of [illegible] and cheap money they may succeed in their [illegible] but we fear that the result will be a [illegible] tion of consumption and an accumulation [illegible] which must ultimately lead to sacrifice and slaughter a prospect tending to prevent that confidence necessary to free purchase and distribution As remarked lately by one of the leading canned goods merchants of Liverpool Whilst four [illegible] fishing must provide for twelve months consumption it is natural that the capitalist should step in and ensure a degree of steadiness in prices but when he firmly resists the offers of those [illegible] merchants who better understand the wants of the grocers and [illegible] together ignores the fact that [illegible] prices then his [illegible]

Salmon [illegible] and large canners and it would be in the interests of the trade generally were prices rather supported when likely to go below production cost but fairly remunerative prices nevertheless accepted This would free it from the excessive fluctuations which have hitherto characterized it

In calculating the prospects of salmon and of any probable easing of the market the following considerations have to be taken into account The fact that whilst the United States home demand is great er 50 000 cases should be ample to meet it and the increase of shipments [illegible] This leaves a surplus of 160 000 over that of last year for the European market or say exactly the amount that San Francisco authorities admit could be spared from stock on the coast which only awaits a reduction in freights for shipment Reports of present prices and firmness will induce preparations for a heavy output in 1881 and as canning commences in April several months before European summer consumption is at its greatest—then forward quotations may considerably affect the market, and even show a possibility of laying down overland, 1881 pack in May-June The most important considerations however, are the possibility of the consumption of the article being reduced by the higher prices presently asked over what the public have been paying and the probability that it is gradually lessened from the competition of the greater number of articles of preserved goods now in the market than hitherto and the continuously lower prices they are offered at

Appended is the following table showing the canning of Columbia river salmon during the ten years ending 1880

Year	Cases	Year	Cases
1871	30 000	1876	450 000
